Thoughts from our Stakeholders

“The Bermuda Volunteer Centre is an exceptional site. I logged in one day and selected what appealed to me and was notified the same day with a perfect volunteer opportunity for my skills and time. The Bermuda Volunteer Centre has remained in contact to follow up that I had found what I was looking for. I strongly recommend anyone that wishes to do any volunteer work to sign up here - it is very helpful, organized and an overall pleasant experience, I am glad that I found it!”

- Volunteer

“The Centre of Philanthropy is vital to the success of the Third Sector in Bermuda, serving the community across all sectors, donors to charities. ‘Commitment to Community’ is one of our firm’s Core Values, and we are proud to support The Centre’s efforts as they affect real change for the better in Bermuda, through positive reinforcement of core principles, mentoring, education and best practice. Working through and with The Centre we can all make better, more effective decisions for the good of our communities.”

- Corporate Member

“The Centre is helping to wake up the community about the Third Sector and in particular volunteerism. Individuals, government and the private sector can gain a better understanding of the various non-profit organizations in order to make better informed decisions on how to offer assistance with time, money or any in-kind service.”

Chairman's Report

Preparing the annual Chairman's report is indeed a highlight, as it is so very rewarding to be a part of the ongoing growth and achievements of The Centre on Philanthropy, and to have the occasion to share these with you, our valued supporters.

There were many highlights of the 2007/08 year. We were successful in building upon the accomplishments of the previous year by expanding on workshops and events, developing the website and the Bermuda Volunteer Centre, and creating further opportunities for the sharing of best practices amongst our stakeholders.

We continued to develop our membership programme, and ended the year with 73% more members, including an increase in corporate members by over 700%! The efforts of our Development Committee have certainly paid off, and as we become an even greater resource to the Third Sector community, I am positive that our member base will continue to grow.

In order to ensure we are best-serving our ever-expanding list of stakeholders, The Centre felt it was important to update our strategic plan. Through consultation with Root Cause, an extensive road map has been prepared which will guide our efforts, making certain that our programmes and activities fulfill key gaps in the sector.

Highlights of this strategic process included:

- The identification of key systemic barriers to a fully effective nonprofit sector: untapped volunteer potential, isolation/fragmentation of stakeholder groups, knowledge and skills gap, multifaceted information gap, and corresponding programmes to address these issues.
- The development of impact measurement tools, providing The Centre with a mechanism for truly capturing the success of our programmes.
- Re-allocating staff and budget resources to maximize efficiency.
- Prioritizing activities based on sector needs.

The Centre has eagerly embraced this new direction as we are certain it will create positive change for the entire sector, and the Board committees have already begun adapting their plans to fit this new model.

We have also adopted a new procedure for rotating Board members, to ensure we are consistently adding new life and new ideas to our dynamic group. In that vein, we welcomed Barbara Bufkin and Ann Spencer-Arscott to the group, but were sad to bid farewell to Bishop Vernon Lambe, Cummings Zuill, Laura Taylor, and Iva Taylor.

The Centre is thankful for the efforts of our Board and committees in providing guidance and leadership. Thanks also to our staff and volunteers who provide the energy and enthusiasm needed to deliver our programmes.

And most importantly, I would like to express my gratitude for all of our supporters over the last few years. Our nonprofit, individual, corporate and foundation members have provided the input and resources that have been integral to our organisation's success, and indeed the success of the entire Third Sector.

Brian Duperreault
Chairman

Executive Director's Report

What a year it has been for us at The Centre on Philanthropy! As our organisation continues to expand programmes and services, we move closer towards our goal of ushering in an era of a more effective and efficient nonprofit sector, and thus a more philanthropic Bermuda.

Between July 2007 and June 2008, 424 individuals took advantage of workshops, forums, teleconferences, and training sessions offered by The Centre in key areas including volunteer management, financial management, governance, and fundraising. Amongst new courses offered were:

- Seven-week Financial Management Course with Government's Community Education Programme
- QuickBooks 2007 training course, and distribution of sponsored software
- Governance Training for both donors and nonprofits with acclaimed non-profit expert, Simone Joyaux

One hundred and fifty-six corporate and charitable organisations benefitted from their staff's increased knowledge in these important areas, representing 83% of our membership.

Feedback has been very encouraging since we expanded our education and training offerings. Our annual nonprofit survey indicated that 71% of our members are very pleased with their benefits and feel membership is a great value for money. We are eager to see this number rise over the next year as we add more programmes and services for our members.

Of course, there are many overseas courses, conferences, and training sessions that would be of great benefit to local nonprofits, and thus we were pleased to introduce two new initiatives to assist organisations with taking advantage of these.

- Through a partnership with Atlantic Philanthropies, The Donor Forum has awarded five nonprofit groups with the Leader Study Tours Grant, allowing them to receive training and education, advancing their skills in evaluation, organisational leadership, and coaching.
- The CV Zuill Scholarship Trust was established with the goal of providing leadership training and development to those within the nonprofit sector, giving those dedicated to Bermuda's Third Sector the opportunity to obtain advanced degrees or certification.

A number of key resources were developed or revised to provide the entire community with access to useful information.

- Updated examples of local and international donor strategies for operating in areas like employee engagement, communications, and measuring performance were compiled for the newly improved version of The Donor Best Practice Guide.
- The Centre on Philanthropy, in partnership with the Donor Forum, the Nonprofit Executive Leadership Forum, Institute of Chartered Accountants of Bermuda, Government, the Bermuda National Standards Committee, and the Bermuda Bar Association created a Financial Best Practices Checklist to advise charities on how to best manage critical financial issues including basic bookkeeping, audits, budgeting, and the role of treasurers.

So what does FY 2009 hold for The Centre?

As noted in The Chairman's report, an extensive strategic planning exercise with Root Cause has provided us with vital objectives to achieve over the next year that, when fulfilled, will increase our capacity to deliver an expanded cadre of programmes and meet the growing needs of the sector.

Integrate and strengthen the training/education strategy.

We are developing an overall education/training framework, which will include a progressive curriculum, learning criteria, and best practice standards to ensure high impact for participants. Additionally, our on-site resource centre will soon open with the latest in nonprofit books, newspapers and magazines

Advance volunteer and sector integration strategies.

With the launch of 'Engage', an employee-supported giving programme, further implementation of our youth philanthropy programme, Giving Starts Here, and ongoing development of the Bermuda Volunteer Centre, we will move closer to our goal of increasing our volunteering population to over 50%.

Focus and strengthen marketing and awareness efforts.

Our marketing strategies include developing standardized content, revising communications, tightening distribution lists, and increasing targeting towards grassroots nonprofits and smaller and local corporate donors.

We certainly have a busy year ahead of us, but with the ongoing support we have received from you, our stakeholders, I am positive that it will also be one of our most rewarding.

FY 2008 Programme Highlights

Looking Back... Moving Forward

In our 2007 Report to Stakeholders, we listed our main objectives for 2008. We are pleased to report that, after a shift of funding to address priority programmes, 100% of our targets were met. Highlights of these accomplishments include:

Objective: Increase total membership by 25%

Throughout FY 2008, membership was increased by 73%, including an increase in corporate membership by over 700%! For the upcoming year our goal is to increase total membership by 15%, by focusing on local firms, individuals, and the sporting community.

Objective: Celebrate National Volunteer Day

For the first time ever, International Volunteer Day - a United Nations sanctioned event - was celebrated on a national scale in Bermuda on December 5, 2007. The collaboration between Government, the private sector, and nonprofits resulted in a memorable occasion where over 80 volunteers were honoured for their commitment to Bermuda. This year, we look forward to celebrating the contributions of even more volunteers who give so generously of their time and talent.

Objective: Launch Giving Starts Here

During Bermuda's first Third Sector Conference dinner, this programme was launched with a short film featuring 6 young philanthropic citizens. This was soon expanded to a full 30-minute television programme which aired in October 2007 to rave reviews. And the launch of the innovative Giving Game encouraged random acts of kindness throughout our schools. Over the next year, we are eager to expand this programme to include Giving Boxes full of philanthropy-inspired resources for all Primary and Middle Schools, and to pilot a civic responsibility curriculum within the high schools.

Objective: Launch Donor Education Programme

In February 2008, The Donor Forum performed a strategic review, and as a result established a schedule of training sessions for their members. Workshops were held covering topics including Employee Engagement and Governance and facilitating sharing of best practices. 2008/09 promises to see even more donor events providing opportunities for learning, networking, and collaboration, including a series of 'Charity Chats', and ongoing donor research.

Objective: Increase the number of registered users of the Bermuda Volunteer Centre to 350

Since the launch of the system in 2006, The Bermuda Volunteer Centre has continued to grow by leaps and bounds, and last year was no exception. Our goal of having 350 volunteers on the system was shattered – to date over 1500 individuals are using the BVC to find meaningful volunteering opportunities! The impact of this donation of time and talent is far-reaching, beyond the nonprofit community, and into all of Bermuda.

Above: Cummings Zuill (centre) is presented with a plaque commemorating the launch of an award in his honour.
