

An Appreciative Inquiry into the Power of Service

Interview tips:

- If you are leading the interview; read it as it is and read the questions as if the person doesn't know them.
- Stay on script. Read only what is written, in the order it is written.
- If you are being interviewed, take the person there. Paint the picture in vivid detail.

Questions:

1. Tell me about a high point with the organization/cause you are associated with where you made a difference.
2. What strengths do you feel you possess that made it possible for you to make a difference?
3. What do you value most about yourself as someone serving in this area?
4. Tell me about your hopes, dreams and aspirations for your cause.
